EDITOR: MILDRED KOOD - PUBLISHER: HELEN DOVALE - TEL: 3227 - P.O. BOX 378 - VOL. I - No. 29 - WK. JULY 14 '66

Let's start your walking and shopping tour this week at the Nassastraat and Adriaan Laclé Boulevard intersection. A few steps from the corner on Laclé Boulevard you will find MESKER. Their collection includes Danish furniture, Scandinavian carpets, Italian lamps, Swedish, Finnish and British fabrics. MESKER'S consultants are experts. They will gladly help you plan, decorate and furnish an office, home, or hotel, whether in Aruba or in the States. You will be happy to know that MESKER will deliver direct from the European factory right to your address. Explore the savings to be had.

Leaving Mesker enter Nassastraat, turn left and stroll downtown. A visit to the STUYVESANT ART SHOP, will prove well worth your while. Here is a permanent exhibition of Dutch oils and local art, as well as other objects. They are all for sale, and remember there's no duty on original paintings!

Two short blocks further down, on the right hand corner at no. 47 is the home of KAN INC., famous jewelers, established in Holland in 1918. They carry Rolex, Longines, International Watch Co. Schaffhausen, Juvenia and Zodiac watches. Kodak, Yashica, Fujica, Konica, and Topcon cameras and binoculars. Precious and semi-precious stones, Mikimoto cultured pearls and many other lovely gift items for someone special back home. In their optical department sunglasses, French and Italian frames. There's a KAN shop at the airport too, and in Bonaire and Curaçao as well, with the same fine line of quality merchandise. Their address for service in the U.S. is 55 West 42nd Street, New York. They honor Diners' Club and American Express cards.

Your next stop is LA PARISIENNE on the left, specializing in a large selection of perfumes, Swiss watches, European leathergoods and Kislav gloves.

A few steps further on the same side, you will soon spot the stairs that lead to EVA BOUTIQUE, house of custom made designs as well as ready made clothing for Milady. Original designs are created from a wide selection of European fabrics, most carefully fitted to the customer. Imports from Italy, France, and Switzerland can be easily altered if need be. Sportswear and costume jewelry round out their attractive line of merchandise. Drop in at EVA BOUTIQUE where you can have a shift made in a few hours, and most designs in 24 hours.

At street level, cross Nassastraat again to SPRITZER & FUHRMANN. The carillon and the lovely showcase displays identify their well known Aruba store. They will be pleased to show their unique collection of diamond and gold jewelry, mostly exclusive pieces from the Continent. Fine watches such as Patek Philippe and Piaget and a wide range of Swiss novelty watches, all advantageously priced. There are clocks, evening bags, objets d'art, crystal, sterling and bone china from the most famous European houses, much more than we can mention plus their very special brand of personalized service. Your guarantees are honored at their New York store, 5 East 57th Street and you are "bonbini" at their lovely stores in Bonaire, Curaçao, and St. Maarten.

At an angle across the street at no. 22 is BOTICA DEL PUEBLO. If you're running low on suntan lotion, hairspray, toothpaste, cosmetics, and other toilet articles, take a few minutes at this drugstore. They also carry perfumes and colognes, as well as the delicious Verkade and Cadbury chocolates, and Dutch "zoute drop" (licorice). If you

ALM... SMALL AIRLINE... BIG ON SERVICE

It's over a year now, that ALM Dutch Antillean Airlines, has smoothly and competently taken over KLM's job of serving the Netherlands Antilles. The tiny fleet of 3 Convair 340's and 1 Beechcraft Queen Air maintains regular scheduled connections between Aruba, Bonaire, Curaçao, St. Maarten, St. Kitts, Maracaibo and Barranquilla, providing KLM dependability and reliability.

ALM acts as general agents for VIASA and KLM, the latter stands by to lend know-how and technical support whenever needed. ALM's technical department also maintains the planes of KLM and VIASA, as well as other foreign planes in need of service. Most of the cabin personnel in Flight Operations are Antilleans who also fly for KLM on the longer trips to New York, Miami and Paramaribo. The flight crews are all KLM trained. The Catering Department's expert cooks look after the needs of both KLM and ALM in this area. In Aruba and Curaçao alone over 139 ALM employees in "Airport Handling" assist passengers with their tickets, luggage, and reservations. Freight is also a major concern.

While you're in the Netherlands Antilles, let ALM (Antilliaanse Luchtvaart Maatschappij) take you on a comfortable flight to Curaçao or Bonaire. (The 7-seater Beechcraft can be chartered for special flights at approximately $85 per hour). Fly ALM soon, you'll see why we're so proud of our national airline. You'll like it too!

The "Scoop" on U.S. Customs Regulations

U.S. Customs Regulations need not frustrate the traveling shopper. Shopping in the Netherlands Antilles can result in many a worthwhile saving. Here are some of the facts about the new October 1, 1965 Customs Regulations and some tips which will make your shopping in the Netherlands Antilles pleasant and profitable.

The U.S. Customs Regulations allow that:

Each returning resident may take back with him, free of duty and tax, articles totaling $ 100.—, providing the stay abroad has exceeded 48 hours and that the $ 100.— exemption or any part of it has not been used within the preceeding 30 days. (The $ 100.— is based on the fair retail value of the items in the country obtained).

The advantages to be considered are:

1. There is NO LIMIT to the number of articles you can take back, as long as you pay duty on the amount in excess of the $100.—. The duty on purchases in excess of $ 100.— is levied on the WHOLESALE PRICE of the item IN THE COUNTRY OBTAINED (the customs officer generally subtracts 40% of your retail cost to arrive at the wholesale value).
Now here is where you can effect your savings. For example:
Let us say that a camera retailing in the U.S. for $ 50.— is retailing in Aruba for $ 30.—. U.S. Customs will levy a 15% duty on 60% of the $ 30.— Aruba price. This is only a duty of $ 2.70. Thus, the total cost of the camera to you, including the duty you will pay on arrival in the U.S. is only $ 32.70! which is still considerably lower than the U.S. retail price of $ 50.—.
2. GIFTS In addition to the $ 100.— exemption, each traveller can mail an UNLIMITED NUMBER of gifts valued up to $ 10.— each, to friends and relatives back home, provided the addressee does not receive in a single day gift parcels exceeding the $ 10.— limitation. NO declaration is required, and NO tax is levied. Gifts of liquor and tobacco are not permitted, but perfume, valued at less than one dollar, is permitted in this privilege.
3. LOW DUTY items are GOOD BUYS because even when including the duty they will cost far less than you would pay back home.

Such items as cameras, watches, jade, perfume, cultured pearls and shoes are good buys.

4. FREE OF DUTY are portable typewriters, foreign photographic film, original paintings, drawings and sculptures, foreign language books, antiques produced before 1830 and of all things, caviar and truffles!
5. WEAR AND TEAR on items purchased during your trip and used during the trip, such as clothing, cameras, binoculars, watches, will be considered by the customs authorities. When declaring these items, mention that they have been used on the trip and the customs officer will make an appropriate reduction for wear and/or use of the value of the item and on the subsequent duty.
6. An UNLIMITED AMOUNT of cigarettes can be brought in duty-free (within your $ 100.— exemption) for personal use (New Yorkers, please note!). Cigars, however, are limited to 100.
7. DUTY-FREE LIQUOR may total one quart per person over 21. Substantial savings can be realized when taking back more than one quart because even with the duty it comes out cheaper than at the corner liquor store in the U.S. This is especially so on higher priced brand items, and on brandy and wine. E. g. a bottle of liqueur retailing in the U.S. for $ 9.26 is sold in bond in Aruba at $ 2.75. The duties levied are $ 2.35, thus the total cost of this bottle to you, including the U.S. duty, is only $ 5.10, and your savings amount to $ 4.16! Imagine the savings on five such bottles amounting to $20.80!!!
8. Remember that you are not allowed to bring back merchandise originating in Communist China, North Korea, North Vietnam and Cuba.
9. SAVE MONEY by using your $ 100.— exemption for the high duty items. Pay duty on the low duty items.
10. Go through U.S. Customs SMOOTHLY by filling out your declaration carefully, keeping your dutiable items together and your sales slips handy.

ISLAND HOPPING IN THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES

A visit to Aruba is not complete without a stop at one or all of our sister islands. It's less than a 30 minute hop to Curaçao with its famous free port shops and swinging pontoon bridge called Queen Emma. Another 20 minutes or so, and you're in tranquil Bonaire, isle of peace and quiet, home of the pink flamingoes.

The three windward islands which make up the rest of the Netherlands Antilles are: St. Maarten, one of the newest "finds" in the Caribbean... quaintly half Dutch, half French. Saba, 15 minutes from St. Maarten, is famed for the intricate lace work made by the women patiently awaiting the return of their menfolk from the sea. (The incredible town called "the Bottom" is located 3,000 feet up though actually in the bottom of an extinct volcano!) At nearby St. Eustatius, the American Flag was first saluted by a foreign power.

ALM Dutch Antillean Airlines operates frequent and fast scheduled services to Aruba, Bonaire and St. Maarten, from where the Windward Islands Airways hops you to Saba and St. Eustatius. A twin engined ALM Beachcraft is also available for charter flights. Inquire at the ALM office at the airport, or your travel agent. Yes, island hopping in the Netherlands Antilles is fun AND INEXPENSIVE, as in many cases your ticket from abroad may be extended to one or more of the islands at little or no cost.
